The College Board redesigned the SAT in March 2016. The redesigned SAT includes an Evidence-Based Reading & Writing Section, and a Mathematics Section. Each portion of the SAT is scored between 200 to 800 with a total possible score of 1600. The results displayed represent each student's most recent score on the redesigned SAT.

Scores are based on the College Board's Assessment Reporting Data Extract files.

Data as of 10/5/2017
